

I am very disturbed about the fact that the Sinclair Broadcast Group has permission to air the partisan program "Stolen Honor" shortly before the Nov. 2nd election. This amounts to a political advertisement for George Bush, without equal time for John Kerry.

I want to see the Sinclair stations pull this program. If that does not happen, I want the stations to air a pro-Kerry program, such as "Going Upriver", during primetime before the election, in order to balance the partisan airing of "Stolen Honor."

This kind of partisan programming is a perfect example of why communities need to retain local ownership of the airwaves.

Thank you.
